Dear Friends and Partners,

Happy New Year!

As we usher in 2024, we look forward to an exciting year ahead. The upcoming CESG 2024 will bring together international thought leaders, government officials, regulators, and industry captains to Singapore, to exchange ideas and share practical solutions on 'Action for a Sustainable and Clean Environment'. Collectively, we can make a significant impact and set new benchmarks for environmental stewardship.

Here's to meaningful connections, fruitful partnerships, and shared achievements through our continued collaboration!

Best wishes from the CESG 2024 team.
